STATE TREASURER

September 7, 2018

The Michigan Department of Treasury's Community Engagement and Finance Division would like to invite you to the 2018 Local Government Summit on Wednesday, October 10, 2018.

At this conference, there will be learning opportunities and specialized training for board members, chief financial officers/business managers, mayors, supervisors, presidents, city or village managers, and other executive office representatives. The Michigan Department of Treasury and other state departments, as well as partner associations, will host keynote speakers and breakout sessions to showcase resources and support for local units of government around the state of Michigan. Go to Michigan.gov/CEFD for additional conference information and a detailed agenda.

This conference will take place at the Laurel Manor Conference Center, in Livonia, MI on Wednesday, October 10, 2018, from 8 am to 4:30 pm. It is free of charge to your local unit of government. Breakfast and lunch will also be provided.

If you are interested in registering, please register here. There are two registration tickets related to this event, a general Fall 2018 Local Government Summit ticket, and one specific to the Property Tax Track, offering continuing education credit for those involved in property tax assessing. Please be sure to click the correct registration link. The deadline to register is October 1, 2018.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Nick Brousseau at (517) 241-4234 or Kayla Rosen at (517) 373-8775 or by email at TreasLocalGov@michigan.gov.

Sincerely,
